Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A PERSISTENT INTERVIEWER.

Miss Asi L. Esac, who is passing the summer in Oyster Bay for the purpose of interviewing the president or Mrs. Roosevelt on what she declares is "a matter of life and death," created a scene during the service in Christ Episcopal Church yesterday.

Miss Esac, or Miss Case, as her name is supposed to be, has attended every church service the president has since his arrival at Oyster Bay in July. She has climbed Sagamore Hill on foot several times, only to be turned away by the secret service men.

She presented herself early at the church yesterday, and took a seat directly behind the pew usually occupied by the Roosevelt family. When Usher James Duffy requested her to relinquish this seat she refused. Duffy forcibly removed her to the rear of the church, and Miss Esac says he tore her gown in so doing.

In the rear of the church Miss Esac refused to sit down. A secret service agent stood beside her, and during the service she made no less than a dozen attempts to get past him.

As the President was leaving the church three secret service men surrounded Miss Esac, but she shouted:

"Mr. President, Mr. President; President Roosevelt, Wont you speak to me a moment?"

The President turned his head as he passed, but did not pause.

Behind the President as he left the church came Mrs. Longworth, Mrs. Roosevelt, Quentin, and Mr. Longworth. Miss Esac reached the edge of the aisle in time to catch Mr. Longworth. She called to him several times, but Mr. Longworth hurried on, looking quite surprised and rather bewildered at the amount of attention he had excited.

Outside the church Miss Esac struggled hard to reach the President's carriage. The secret service men interfered their broad backs and wedged the woman in an angle of the church wall.

In the struggle her watch chain snapped and the watch rolled along the path. She seemed quite grateful when one of the men returned it to her.

Miss Esace subsequently applied for a warrant for the arrest of Duffy, she charging him with tearing her dress. The warrant was refused.

Fight on a Roof.

On the edge of a roof coping five stories from the ground an alleged burglar and a policeman fought for life and death in New York on Saturday afternoon. The policeman, after a desperate struggle, in which his clothes were slashed to ribbons by a knife wielded by his opponent, managed to knock the man senseless.

Policeman Dwyer, of the Eldridge street station, caught the man on the edge of the roof of No. 45 Forsyth street, where he is said to have attempted to break into a flat. When the man saw Dwyer he ran to the coping and made ready to try a jump of 20 feet across a sheer drop of five stories to the roof of an adjoining house.

Dwyer caught him and threw him upon the roof. The man sprang to his feet, however, and, drawing a long knife, rushed at the policeman. The latter warded off the blows with his club, but many of the slashes reached his clothing, ripping it to shreds.

For 10 minutes the battle continued, ending finally by the man lying unconscious at the policeman's feet, with a long cut in his scalp, where the club had reached him.

At the police station he said he was George Klein, of No. 394 Pitt street. A bunch of skeleton keys and a bank book made out in the name of Mrs. Riske Kraseoff, on the State Bank, showing deposits of $500, were found in his possession.

Killed by His Wife.

Mrs. Edward Gillis, wife of a well-known and wealthy merchant of Malvern, Ark., shot and killed her husband Sunday. She fired three shots, two of which went wild, one of them painfully wounding Alderman Reece, of Hot Springs. The shooting took place on the streets of that town. Mrs. Gillis believed her husband to be paying attention to another Malvern woman and when, after they had driven together from Malvern to Hot Springs, he became separated from her, her jealous rage got the upper hand. Securing a revolver, she set out in search of him. After an hour's patrolling the streets Mrs. Gillis met Gillis in his buggy, and although his companion was a man, she stopped the vehicle and, so witnesses state, abused her husband roundly. It is alleged that Gillis then jumped from the buggy and struck his wife in the mouth with his clenched fist, and she retaliated by firing the three shots as stated. The woman is in jail, too hysterical to make a statement, and has not been told of her husband's death. Alderman Reece's wound is not dangerous.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 Kingstreet.

Young Woman Drowned.

Miss Annie Gray, aged twenty-one years, a beautiful girl of Harrisburg, Pa., who arrived in Baltimore yesterday morning on a visit to her uncle, Daniel Brady, and to attend the marriage of a friend, was drowned yesterday afternoon. With several members of her uncle's family, she went on board the schooner Marie Palmer. Samuel Campbell, the mate, invited them to take a trip in the yawl. Miss Elizabeth Brady, a cousin, was helped into the boat by Campbell, but Miss Gray laughingly made a leap for the small craft before Campbell could get hold of her. The next instant she struck against the man and knocked him into the water.

She touched the side of the yawl with one foot but, unable to catch her balance, fell into the dock and sank.

Campbell scrambled into the boat, and in an instant Engineer William Armstrong was overboard in an effort to rescue the girl. He caught her gown, but the clothing slipped from his grasp. Miss Gray's sixteen-year-old brother saw his sister drown.

Miss Brady had to be restrained from jumping overboard after her cousin. Later in the afternoon she again attempted to throw herself overboard in her wild grief.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, AUG. 13, 1906.

AT democratic congressional campaign committee headquarters at Washington the springing of the Cannon presidential boom in Illinois is declared to be a sign of distress. It is known that conditions in the republican party in the State have alarmed the republican leaders over the widespread discontent among the rank and file. In his speech accepting renomination this week, Speaker Cannon is going to undertake an exhaustive defense of the course of his party with regard to labor legislation at the late session. The corporations are equally disgruntled because of several bills that were passed, notably the meat inspection bill, and especially at the way the administration forced action in that measure. These conditions made it plain to the leaders that extraordinary means must be taken to rally the republican voters. Springing the Cannon presidential boom was one of the means adopted. It is hoped State pride will be aroused by the vain expectation that Mr. Cannon may be taken for the republican standard bearer in 1908 and that this will cause the disgruntled republicans to forget their grievances and vote the straight ticket for members of Congress and the legislature.

SECRETARY BONAPARTE delivered an address on "anarchism and its remedy" yesterday afternoon before a large gathering at the Allegany Chautauqua, six miles above Cumberland, Md. The secretary treated this important subject in a practical manner. Among other things he said that unlawful acts prompted by anarchism should be made crimes, and as crimes should be visited with such penalties as are distasteful to the perpetrators. He especially recommended the use of the lash in certain cases. The secretary said the death penalty should be exacted when life is sought or taken. "Anarchism," he said, "was originally imported, but now we have a home made brand." Secretary Bonaparte discussed at length the difference between anarchism and socialism, but pointed out that after all there is not much difference. In the end he believed that they amounted to practically the same thing. He sees little difference between the theory of no government and the theory of absolute equality.

BECAUSE Reginault Hasbrock, ten years old, of Trenton, N. J., threatened to tell the police of his father's extreme cruelty toward him, the father wrapped a piece of wire around his tongue and twisted it up with a stick until the lad became almost paralyzed. The inhuman father was arrested and the justice before whom he was taken, very properly, refused to bail him. The arrest discloses a story of cruel and, inhuman treatment covering a period of about seven years, in which the boy's mother was not spared. It is charged that she was compelled to go to a hospital on several occasions after her husband had beaten her, but she always refused to have him arrested. The treatment of the boy, it is alleged, consisted of hanging him by the thumbs, depriving him of his meals and whipping him in a most inhuman manner. The above is another incident which shows that the lash should be applied to certain individuals.

A NEW electric storage battery passenger car, built for the Missouri and Kansas City Interurban Railway, started last week from Philadelphia under its own power for Kansas City. This car is driven by storage batteries fed by dynamos operated by a gas engine. It is designed to run at an average speed of fifty-five miles an hour. The car measures 52 feet 9 inches, being a combination smoker and passenger, with seating capacity for forty-two people. It is expected that by using this style of car the cost of railroad construction may be reduced $6,000 a mile and the operation in proportion, so a two cent per mile rate may soon be secured to the traveling public after all.

LACK of officers in the navy is emphasized just now, when applications are made for leave of absence for a short time during the hot summer months. Most of these requests have to be refused as there are not enough officers to go around. Some of the ships are without their full quota, and there is a demand for officers to fill the details ashore and in the various bureaus where officers are required. A number of retired officers are on duty in different places, and are retained because active officers cannot be spared from other duty. There is also said to be similar shortage of men, but notwithstanding this the building of naval vessels goes merrily on.

A PROFESSOR in the Chicago University writes an article to prove that women "with a past" make better wives than those who have always observed the conventionalities. "Such doctrine," says the Philadelphia North American, "might be regarded as dangerous if it weren't for one thing—its source." In the meantime, those that give the matter any thought are willing to concede to the professor his opinion and his choice of a wife.

THE BAPTISTS of Imlaystown, near Trenton, N. J., were much surprised yesterday to find their house of worship securely locked and their colored janitor nowhere in sight. Later there was much indignation among the people when it was learned that he had gone to Trenton to a picnic in the public park. A committee was sent after him. He told them he had as good a right to be absent as the pastor, who is away on a vacation.

THE glitter of a presidential nomination, which the stand patters presented to the earnest gaze of Gov. Cummins, of Iowa, was too great a temptation and he surrendered on the issue that had made him famous. Such is not the stuff of which presidents are made.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is having a real restful summer playing at politics with Cannon, Platt, Odell and others.

Negligent and inefficient government clerks will be dismissed, as orders have been given to all bureau chiefs to make a report of all clerks whose records for efficiency fall below the standard. The result of the work of the Keep commission was the calling of the bureau chief's attention to the law of 1890, requiring heads of the departments to report to Congress each year the number of employees in each bureau and the salaries of each, who fall below the standard of efficiency.

The new forth class of the Naval Academy will be the smallest at that institution since 1903. There have been 198 successful nominees sworn in at Annapolis and a few more who are awaiting a physical re-examination will bring the total of the class to a little more than 200 members. There are 100 vacancies to go over for the next academic year, places to be filled in anticipation of the examination to be held in April and June of 1907. Those places with the vacancies created by the graduation of next June, will furnish an opportunity to appoint something like 400 midshipmen during the next year.

The War Department is advised that the cable duplexing apparatus sent to Seattle, Washington, for use on the Alaskan cable has been a complete success. The cable ship Burnside will go to Alaska and install duplexing equipment at the Alaskan end of the cable twice the capacity it has at the present. The duplexing apparatus in the first ever manufactured in this country and was made by the army signal corps in this city at a cost which is said to be $22,000 less than manufacturers offered to make it.

The State Department is convinced that the reports from St. Petersburg telling of the attempt on the life of the Grand Duke Nicholas have been greatly exaggerated. Advices received by the acting Secretary of State this morning from St. Peteraburg bear out this belief. They say that the true story is that on last Thursday the Grand Duke, in the company of several general officers of the Russian army, was inspecting some troops. During the inspection some of the officers in the Grand Duke's party heard a single bullet whistle over their heads. This, the reports received by the State Department declare, was construed in certain quarters as an attempted assassination of the Grand Duke.

In accordance with directions from President Roosevelt, the Inter-state Commerce Commission will institute an inquiry into the so-called ice trust at Toledo, Ohio. Official announcement of this fact was made at the commission's office this morning. Commission Judson Clements will open the hearings at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the United States room at Toledo. The inquiry will be an exhaustive one. The notification issued by the commission is novel in that it merely recites the ordering of the investigaton against the railways enumerated for violation of the laws by "illegal rates and practices in the interstate transportation of ice," instead of setting out the complaint in detail as is customary. This is due to the inquiry having been begun upon the initiative of the President instead of upon that of the commission. Who appeared as complainants before the President is not divulged.

The Bureau of Labor today announced the results of its investigation of wages and hours of labor in 1905. They show that the average wages per hour in the principal manufacturing and mechanical industries of the country were 1 6 per cent higher than in 1904; that the average hours of labor per week remained the same as in 1904, and that 6 8 per cent more persons were employed in the establishment investigated. As there were no reductions in the average hours of labor per week, the average weekly earnings per employee were 1.6 per cent higher than in 1904. As there was an increase in the number of employees as well as in the weekly earnings per employee, there was a considerable increase in the weekly earnings of all employees, or in other words, in the amount of the weekly pay roll. This increase was 8 per cent in the establishments investigated. In connection with this investigation, the bureau announces statistics on the retail prices of food in 1905 as compared with previous years. It is stated that the retail prices of thirty principal articles of food were six-tenths of one per cent higher in 1905 than in 1904. The purchasing power of hourly wages and also of weekly earnings per employee, as measured by retail prices of the thirty articles of food, was therefore 1 per cent higher in 1905 than in 1904.

Leaving Newport and the gay doings of his friends of the ultra-fashionable set, from whom he parted to enlist in the United States navy on August 4, under orders to report at the training at the Norfolk navy yard, J. Rotner Storrs Wells, son of President Wells, millionaire head of the Fairbanks Company, has just reached Norfolk. He was placed abroad the receiving ship Franklin Saturday evening under arrest, and will, it is understood, have to face a court-martial on charges of disobedience of the orders given him at Newport to proceed to Norfolk and report for duty on the Franklin. Thus does the Larchmont yatchsman, rich man's son and husband of a chorus girl whom he recently married, begin his career in the United States navy. Young Wells enlisted as an apprentice seaman in New York a little more than a month ago.

United States Minister Magoon in the Republic of Panama cabled the State Department today a brief statement regarding the arrest of thirteen conspirators against the life of President Amador of the Panama republic. He says that the party of would-be assassins consisted of eleven Colombians, one Mexican and one Nicaraguan. All were arrested before they had an opportunity to make their attack on President Amador and are now safely lodged in jail. Minister Magoon does not regard the plot as being significant in any way of general dissatisfaction with the Amador administration.

The council for Assistants Surgeons Pease and Brown, of the Navy, who were court-martialed at the Washington Navy Yard last week on charges of cribbing on examination for promotion, today filed a brief with Secretary Bonaparte in the cases. No intimation was given out as to the verdict of the court, but it is understood unofficially that if the attorneys knew the result they would feel that their action today possibly would prove a fortunate step. This action will delay the action of the Secretary another week or ten days.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, in an interview today, says there is absolutely no foundation for the statement that he has decided to purchase $40,000,000 or $50,000,000 of the outstanding four per cent. bonds as a means of relieving the expected money stringency when crop moving time comes. The secretary returned to Washington unexpectedly this morning, certain departmental matters of routine calling him back.

Trouble on Brooklyn Rapid Transit Road.

New York, Aug. 13.—Trouble started yesterday on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit railroad at Gravesend, where the Brooklyn Rapid Transit special police began to assault and eject passengers who refused to pay a second fare. The result was a blockade that tied up the traffic so badly that cars leaving the Brooklyn Bridge at 3 o'clock did not reach Coney Island until 7 o'clock. This state of affairs continued throughout the night. Return traffic wasin a worse state until Assistant Commissioner of Police O'Keefe, realizing that the 250,000 persons on the island would have to be got home, decided the situation constituted a public emergency, and insisted on the cars being run through, whether the company got its second fare or not. He had to arrest Dow F. Smith, General Superintendent of the road; H. C. Davis, Superintendent of the Culver division, and several motormen before he broke the blockade.

Then things went smoothly for a while until Superintendent Smith got out of jail and reiterated his orders to hold up traffic while excess fares were collected. This resulted in Smith's re-arrest about 11 o'clock last night, but he was soon set at liberty again.

Smith again tied up the road, and his officers began assaulting and ejecting passengers at the Kensington station. Finally, Road Superintendent Maybury rode up in an automobile and went from car to car asking each conductor how many excess fares he lacked and paying them out of his own pocket when he was told the number. The cars then began moving and the blockade was lifted.

Ex-Judge Parker and ex-Governor Black have been retained by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit to defend the legality of the ten cent fare to Coney Island.

Deputy Police Commissioner O'Keefe today revoked all the appointments on the B. R. T. force of special officers who were yesterday dragging from the cars all persons refusing to pay a second fare over the Coney Island line.

An organization of citizens was effected today to fight for the single fare to Coney Island in the court.

Grand Army of the Republic.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 13—Trains are arriving at the rate of one every two minutes, each burdened with veterans of the civil war and other visitors to this city, and it is expected by tomorrow nearly two hundred thousand strangers will be here to attend the fortieth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Robert V. Brown, of Evansville, Ohio, is waging a vigorous campaign for the commandership. Charles D. Burton, of Nevada Mo. pleads the West is entitled to the honor of being at the head of the organization, and P. H. Coney, of Topeka, Kansas, makes the same claim. Coney is backed by General Nelson A. Miles. Charles A Clark, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is also a candidate for commander in chief. Tomorrow morning the grand military parade will take place. Miss Julia B F. Lodbell, of Minneapolis, claims the presidency of the ladies of the G. A. R. Mrs. Henrietta Gawiere and Mrs Ada Shannon, of Pennsylvania, are striving for the honor. The East, by precedent, is entitled to the presidency of the Womens Relief Corps, and the fight will be between Mrs. Mary E Gilman, of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Dale E. Jones, of New York.

The Sultan's Illness.

Constantinople, Aug. 13—It has been ascertained from a trustworthy source that the illness from which the Sultan has been suffering is kidney trouble, which has been in an acute stage for a long time. A fortnight ago the court physicians advised that an operation be performed to relieve the trouble, but the Sultan refused to submit to the knife. On August 5 the physicians held another consultation and at its conclusion told Abdul that if he would not undergo an operation he would not live six months. The Sultan then agreed to take the advice of his physicians and summoned Professor Bergmann, the well known German specialist. As a result of the illness of the Sultan, the court party is now paying assiduous attention to the Sultan's heir, Rechat Effendi. Rechat, also, is ill, but his condition is not serious.

Mother at 53 Years.

Spokane, Wash., Aug., 13 —At the age of 53, Mrs. H. O. Gorham has given birth to her thirteenth child, a daughter. Her eldest, a son, is 35. Mrs. Gorham lives on a farm twenty miles from Baker City, Wash. She has taken pride in reporting the arrival of a daughter to one of her years, because a woman residing at Pocatello, Idaho, recently claimed the record by bringing a son into the world at the age of 49. The Baker City mother looks young for her years, and says she feels young. "Indeed," she declares, "one is just as old as she feels and no older, after all."

Mysterious Shooting.

New York, Aug. 13.—As the result of a mysterious shooting early today at Ocean Walk and the Bowery, Coney Island, four persons, one a woman, were wounded. It is thought by the police that they were hit by stray bullets which had been fired in a fight near by. It was while the crowd was at its height that six shots were heard and a panic followed among the thousands who were wandering about unable to get trains to take them home. There was a wild scramble for safety.

Urges Sullivan to Resign.

Paris, Aug. 13.—A statement in explanation of why he is opposing the retention of Roger Sullivan as the Illinois member of the national democratic committee was made public today by William Jennings Bryan. Recently Mr. Bryan in a letter demanded Sullivan's resignation. Sullivan promptly refused to resign, and declared that Mr. Bryan had been misinformed in regard to the situation by M. F. Dunlap. Mr. Bryan today denies that any one but himself is responsible for the demand he made for Sullivan's retirement, and says he had resolved to seek to have him resign from the national committee before he should see Mr. Dunlap. "I entered into this contest believing that Mr. Sullivan and John Hopkins had deliberately robbed the democrats of Illinois of their political right, and still I believe so," said Mr. Bryan. "To secure political power by force or fraud ought to be as disgraceful in the eyes of the public as to secure money by force or fraud. I cannot conceive of any plausible defense which Mr. Sullivan can make for remaining on the national committee. If the body is unable to rid itself of the leadership of men like Sullivan who seek to control the party organization to advance their corporate interests, it might as well dissolve." Mr. Bryan added that he had been anxious to allow Sullivan to retire without a fight but that it is probably just as well that he has chosen to give battle, because if the party must purify its organization the sooner it begins the better. While thus expressing his district of Sullivan, Mr. Bryan in his statement makes plain his confidence in the work of the majority rule legal and of Messrs. Dunlap, Thompson, Nelson and Rainey.

War on Greeks.

Vienna, Austria, Aug. 13 —The riots incited against Greeks in the Balkans have assumed a more serious proportion than was indicated by former advices. The Bulgarians are making vigorous attacks on the Greeks, and todays dispatches show that the situation is threatening. At Anchiles or Ascol, a town on the Black Sea, in eastern Bumelia, where Greeks comprised the greater part of the population, Bulgarians have set fire to the city. It is feared that many other places will be destroyed. Mobs also plundered shops belonging to Greeks in the towns of Rustchuk, and Tirchova, Bulgaria. The Greeks suffered heavy losses in these raids on their places of business.

Explosion in a Powder Mill.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 13.—After irregular changes in the first few minutes, the stock market became decidedly strong and material gains were made all around the room, some stocks advancing to the highest prices reached this year. The Steel stocks—Anaconda and Amalgamated—were strong. An effort was made to depress Pennsylvania in the early trading, but the stock was in good demand. London bought 12,000 shares.

Tom Madine at Shore.

Tom Madine, coachman and co-respondent in the Harije divorce case, is in Atlantic City for a little rest, after the trial of the suit of the Pittsburg paper millionaire against his wife, Mary Scott Hartje, in which he also named a negro coachman. He slipped into town Friday night, registering at the Hotel Malatesta as "Thomas Smith, Pittsburg."

As Smith, Madine lasted about seven minutes. According to Madine last night, at least 5,000 persons knew him as Madine before the ink on "Smith" was dry. "Ain't it the limit," said Madine at the Malatesta. He was attired in a suit of robin egg blue, with a beautiful white four-in-hand tie, and seemed happy. "Yes, I'm Madine all right," he confessed; "there's no use denying it any longer."

The experiences of Medine since reaching Atlantic City have been amusing. As he turned from the register at Malatesta's on Friday night he ran into Captain Tom McCabe, of the Pittsburg police force.

"Hello, Madine," said McCabe, reaching out his big, fat paw.

"Hush," said Madine, holding up his finger. But it was too late, the mischief was done. A low buzzing ran around the hotel foyer, and Madine slipped out the side door and did not appear again that night.

Madine's troubles began afresh the next morning when he entered Rutter's bathhouse for his first ocean dip. Like all others, he was required to deposit his valuables in a canvas bag at the desk, also to write his name on a paper slip to be pinned to the bag.

For all the native cuteness of the ruddy-faced Irishman asserted itself, and he wrote Madine. "Madine, eh?" said the attendant, as he looked at the name. "I guess you're not that Pittsburg feller?"

But his troubles were not yet fully ended, as fully forty persons had caught the name and everybody within hearing distance flocked after him. He got locker "23" insisted on having another.

A Terrible Mistake.

A terrible story of murder comes from Tubize. A man named Griset, the father of eight children, suspecting his wife of infidelity, lay in wait near the station for the man he assumed to be her lover. When suddenly a gentleman drew near, the jealous husband sprang at the supposed rival and plunged his dagger into him again and again. When his victim fell to the ground, mortally wounded, the wretched assailant saw that he had made a terrible mistake, and, hurrying home, he murdered his wife in the same savage fashion with the same weapon. He completed his horrible work by hanging himself. The first victim of the assassin proved to be an honored university professor, M. Carnus, who had never seen either Griset or his wife.

Assaulted Wife and Mother-in-law.

James Brown, colored, concluded to break up housekeeping last Saturday and to sell his household effects. His wife objected to this procedure and he assaulted her. She went to the station house and asked for a warrant for the arrest of her husband, and upon her return home she was again attacked by Brown, who cut her seriously. The woman's mother, Amelia Yarbor, ran to her daughter's aid, when Brown made a vicious attack upon her, beating her on the head severely. He then ran out of the house. Brown's wife and mother-in-law were taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. Officers Knight, Ferguson, Smith and Nicholson went on a search of Brown and arrested him. He was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. Justice Caton fined him $50.

The Fort Hunt wharf, in consequence of the wide flats on the Virginia side the river, is one of the longest piers on the Potomac, being, it is stated, over a half mile in length.

superstitions of Farmers.

Farmers "stick to the moon" in regard to planting corn and other crops. Some of them will not under any circumstances plant corn on moonlight nights, claiming that corn planted then will produce a tall stalk with a short ear. Others just as successfully plant when they are ready, when nights are dark or moonlight, as the case may be. Other notions are indulged in, such as throwing the cobs in running water to keep corn from firing. Some farmers would under no consideration burn pinder hulls, the seed of which is to be used for planting. They must be scattered along a path or highway, to be trodden upon in order to secure a good crop. Green butter bean hulls must be thrown in a road after being shelled for table use from day to day to insure a good crop the following season.—Charleston News and Courier.

Any One Can Spell Shakespeare.

One is not in danger of misspelling the word Shakespeare. Some one has discovered 4,000 ways, of which the following, as they actually appear in old documents, are examples; Shakspere, Shaxpere, Shakspire, Schaxper, Shakespere, Shagpere, Schakspeyr, Shaxespere, Shaxpur, Shaxper, Shaksper, Schackspeare, Saxpere, Shackespire, Shakespire, Shackespeare, Shakaspear, Shakspear, Shaxpeare, Shakspeere, Shaxpure, Shacksper, Shakspear, Schakspere, etc. If the chirography of Shakespeare himself is any authority twenty-two of these ways are correct.

A Nation of Sleepers.

"Rare slumberers are the Turks," declares a writer. "In the villages, at any rate, they will drop into the land of dreams on the slightest pretext and at the shortest notice. This habit has advantages, one being that the Turk does not at all mind being awakened in the dead of night for the simple reason that he can go to sleep again the instant he wishes. When staying in very limited quarters I have often heard a member of the family get up and after searching about among his sleeping companions thoroughly rouse them all to ask where his tobacco was or upon some equally slight excuse."

Enough Money.

Half a dozen brokers were discussing Russell Sage and his peculiarities when one of them told this story: The financier was once asked, "When does a man get enough money, Mr. Sage?" "When he gets $10,000 more," said Uncle Russell as he stopped at an apple stand for a moment. Then he passed on without buying.

His Part.

"Look here," remarked the thrifty man to his extravagant wife, "you're carrying too much sail, my lady."

"I don't know why you should bother about that," she retorted.

"No?" said he. "I think I should, since I have to raise the wind."

Brought Down the House.

Critic—I hear that the new man's acting brought down the house. Manager—Yes, it did. In one week it brought down the house from 800 to 10 people and the attendants.

In the Doctor's Waiting Room.

Doctor (entering suddenly)—Which of you has waited longest? Shears (sulkily)—I. I have waited six months, and you haven't paid me for that last suit yet!

The First Son.

Nodd—I can't make up my mind what college to send that boy of mine to. Todd—How old is he? Nodd—Nearly three weeks.

Moses Wrote Pentateuch.

That Moses did write the sacred books known as the Pentateuch, but that they were not wholly inspired, is the gist of the report of the Pontifical Biblical Commission appointed by Pope Pius X shortly after his accession. The report has just been translated and, under the direction of Dr. Grannan, of the Catholic University at Washington, who was the American member of the commmission, has been sent to Biblical scholars throughout the country. The fact that the commission, while strongly upholding the Mosaic authorship of the Pentateuch, has admitted that they are not wholly inspired is considered a departure which not many years ago would have created a sensation among the conservative scholarstics of the Catholic Church. This concession is made in answer to one of the doubts proposed to the commission for solution.

My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00. Farmer Killed By Cousin.

T. F. Drake, a prominent farmer living near Anderson, S. C., was shot and instantly killed about midnight Saturday by J. Allen Emerson, a cousin, the tragedy occurring in the bedroom of Drake's daughter. Emerson, who went to Anderson immediately after the shooting, surrendered, and said that Drake, entering the room at a late hour and finding him there, had opened fire, and that he, in self-defense, shot Drake. Both men were well known in Anderson. Drake was fifty-nine years of age, and was prosperous and respected. Emerson, who is thirty-five, held a minor county position. The daughter, who was with Emerson at the time of the shooting, left for parts unknown.
